Exhibitors' signboards are standardized, and form integral part of the Fair graphic project. Any changes to the standard construction of a stand, as well as introducing additional decorative elements, like posters, racks, ornaments etc. going beyond the limits of the stand area, require the Organizer's permission, regarding safety rules. Placing any advertisements, promotion materials or any other subjects outside the paid-for stand results in charging the Fair participant with an additional fee of 100% of the basic price paid by the Fair participant.

11. Putting any exhibits or advertisements on the stand walls causing their permanent damage is forbidden. The Organizer will charge the Fair participant with additional costs.
12. Any Fair participant who wishes to have his stand set up by a company other than the one indicated by the Organizer is obliged to give its name, and submit to the Organizer the stand project and plan of electricity connections 30 days before the Fair for acceptance. The Fair participant is responsible for its constructor to observe fire and safety rules for the Fair, and for damages made to the Organizers or other participants by companies constructing stands, and by his own staff.
13. Any electric works on a stand can be done only by personnel authorized by the Organizer. Only computers and phonographic equipment can be switched to the electric sockets. The Organizer does not allow switching on any equipment requiring big power supply (electric kettles, coffee makers etc.).
14. The Organizer will give the access to the storage area and to the stands for organization on April 7th 2011 from 4.00 p.m. till 8.00 p.m., and on April 8th, 2011 from 8.00 a.m. The exhibitors are required to prepare the stands till 10.00 a.m. on April 8th and to take the cargo back from the Fair area till 8.00 p.m. on April 10th.
15. The Exhibitor is not authorized to sub-letting or licensing the use of his stand to other parties in any form. The Exhibitor is obliged to report any co-exhibitors and receive the Organizer's approval for their participation in the Fair. The Co-exhibitor is obliged to observe the Rules of the Fair and to pay the membership fee. The Expositor is responsible for its co-exhibitor's actions as for its own.
16. The Organizer ensures security of the stands and the exhibited publications when the exhibition hall is closed to the visitors. The Exhibitors are responsible for the damages caused by themselves or their representatives present at the stand when the hall is open. The Organizer is not responsible for damages on the stands. The Organizer is also not responsible for the damages resulting from burglary, fire, windstorm, thunderbolt, explosion or waterfall, electricity breakdown, and other causes not depending on the Organizer. The Organizer is not responsible for changing the Fair term, its cancellation or interruption, as well as changes of organizational or financial conditions caused by the forces' majeure activity or governmental regulation. The Organizer is not liable against the Fair participants nor visitors.
17. The Organizer ensures meeting halls for 50 accompanying events organized by the publishers, on the basis of their written applications. The event cannot last longer than 55 minutes. The meeting halls hiring is charged according to the Price List. Reservation of the date and hours shall be arranged with Father Roman Szpakowski, phone no: +48 501.027.218, on Mondays – Fridays 8.00 am – 4.00 pm. The Organizer offers advertisement of meetings with authors during the Fair. The Fair participant has a right to organize meetings with authors, books promotion, contests, etc at his own stand. The Organizer will be obliged for sending previously information concerning planned accompanying events – also at the stands – to place it in the Fair agenda.
18. Each participant of the Fair is obliged to provide information about his/her company, to enter it into the Fair Catalogue. The cost of such publication is included in the price of the stand, and is obligatory. The deadline for submitting the application forms with the catalogue information is February 15th, 2011. The Organizer is not responsible for the content of the participant information. The Fair participant receives one copy of the Fair Catalogue, and Entrance Cards for staff working at a stand, as follows: "A" option stand – 3 cards, "B" option stand – 2 cards. The Fair participants provide their guests and authors with entrance tickets to the Fair exhibition hall. Invitations for accompanying events do not authorize entering the Fair exhibition hall.
19. During the Fair the Exhibitor and his representatives are required to carry the ID card received from the Organizer.
20. On April 8-10, 2011 sale at the stands is allowed.
21. Storing any packages in the exhibition hall or its neighborhood is forbidden. Exhibits cannot be placed within communication routes nearby the stands. Any promotion activity of the Fair participant must be previously agreed on with the Organizer, and it should not make the running of other stands difficult or impossible, nor obstruct the traffic of the participants and the visitors.
22. The deadline for resigning from the participation in the 17th Catholic Publishers Fair is March 25th, 2011.
